

PUBLIC

LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1887.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1888.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

There was a man in Michigan
Who used to wish, and wichigan,
That spring would come
So he could "home"
And go away and fishigan.

THE LEDGER delights in obliging its friends. It prints "Help Wanted," "Situations Wanted," "Lost" and "Found" notices free of charge; and as it costs you nothing for such service, don't you think it is as little as you can do to write the copy and either bring or send it to the office?

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 22, and let us have it.

Baldwin Pianos at Gerbrich's.

Mr. Peyton Wheeler of West Fourth street is still confined to his bed. He does not gather strength as rapidly as his friends would wish.

Our new Sheriff-elect, James Mackey, will remove his office from Court street and occupy the frame building in Third street adjoining the Courthouse yard.

Who's got Mr. W. R. Smith's overcoat? That is a momentous question now agitating the genial Willam's mind. Don't hold your hands up all at once.

Colonel E. L. Manchester, Manager of the Keystone Commercial Company, yesterday shipped to Boston the third carload of dressed turkeys for this season.

Master John D. Beckett is in Cincinnati being fitted with the artificial limb for which so many Ledger readers kindly sent subscriptions. When he gets it he will render thanks to his generous friends.

The electric plant in the West End has been vastly improved in the past several weeks. A new boiler 18 feet in length and 6 feet in diameter has been installed, together with a feed water heater and purifier. The water that supplies the boiler passes through the water tube and is heated to 206° before entering the boiler. Besides being a labor saver it reduces the cost in the way of fuel and doubles boiler capacity of the plant.

Our stock of Mounted Diamonds is the largest in the city, comprising the very latest sommings. See our new Cluster Rings; nothing ever seen here like them; have the effect of a large solitaire. Our combination rings are new and beautiful—diamonds with ruby, emerald, sapphire, pearl and opals, all the latest combinations. We are leaders in diamond goods. P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

To THE BURLEY TOBACCO GROWERS.

Your attention is called to the fact that there is little time left to sign up Contract A and send it in. To prevent any misunderstanding we make the following statement which has been made many times:

First: The 25% of stock provided in the contract is all that you will be required to take. If you have previously subscribed and paid in 10% the balance 80% of your subscription is credited to your contract, and you will not be required to take any more. If you sign the contract and we do not take the tobacco you are released from any further payment on your subscription that you have already made.

Second: There is no double liability on the stock. The incorporation papers distinctly state that individual property is not subject for corporate debts.

Third: Our schedule of prices are above the market; what more do you want? If the movement fails it will be because the farmers do not sign their tobacco, so that success or failure rests entirely with the Growers themselves. The time will not be extended. Yours truly,

KENTUCKY AND OHIO BURLEY TOBACCO GROWERS COMPANY.

Circuit Court.

The following Petit Jury was selected: James Collopy, William Foley, Anthony Layham, A. B. McAtee, James Claybrook, Pat Sterney, Jacob Sheeler, Reason Dowling, Ben Marshall, William Gantley, W. D. Manley, J. W. Bramel, J. T. Lee, D. F. Weaver, G. W. Woodward, C. M. Devore, James Slattery, John Bell, William Downing, C. F. Breeze, Joseph Oechras, W. C. Johnson, A. D. Dickson, John Manion.

Messrs. S. P. Ferrine, A. P. Lukins and Thomas A. Davis were appointed Jury Commissioners for the ensuing year.

Charles Clay, for robbery, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for five years. Clay snatched a purse containing $5 from Mrs. Frank Purdon as she was passing over Limestone Bridge on February 18th last.

THE NEW CROP MOLASSES ...

THE FINEST IN THE STATE is "M. C. R." Fiori. It is good if it comes from Russell's.

To date seventy-three counties have reported officially to the Secretary of State, as required by law, returns of the election of November 7th last. Many of those reporting have failed to give the vote cast on the proposed Constitutional Amendment and others have given this vote alone. The State Election Commission is to meet tomorrow to canvass the returns.

About 3 o'clock this morning the building in which the colored school is located at Germantown was discovered on fire.

A NEW AND BRILLIANT STAR IN THE MUSICAL FIRMAMENT.

Well's Band appears to have shot up into the musical firmament with dazzling brilliancy, and shines as a star of the first magnitude. Its first real ascendancy was in more than five hundred concerts at the World's Fair, where it gained international importance. Within a year it was framed into a full concert band of forty-five high class artiste, and today stands on a footing as one of the very foremost band organizations of the world. Our own public will have an opportunity to hear this new musical sensation Saturday, December 2d, in a program that will put the organization on its mettle.

Judge L. W. Robertson Was Overcome Yesterday in Postoffice

Attorney L. W. Robertson, who had been in poor health for some time, but who had recovered sufficiently to attend to business, was present in the Circuit Court yesterday.

Upon adjournment just before noon he left the Courtroom in good spirits and went to the Postoffice; and while in the act of unlocking his box he was seen to sway backward and would have fallen but for the intervention of Messrs. W. C. Rogers and James Austin, who caught him.

He was at once carried into the Drugstore of Henry W. Ray, medical aid summoned, and soon after he was removed to his apartments at the New Central.

This morning Mr. Robertson is practically himself again, the ailment having been caused by acute indigestion.

INFIRMARY INMATES

The Rules Require Them to Remain on the Premises

The resolutions adopted and placarded for the conduct of affairs at the Mason County Infirmary have the right ring, and if enforced would make it an eleemosynary institution such as none need be ashamed of.

Section 1 of said resolutions says all inmates are required to remain upon the Infirmary premises unless given permission by the Superintendent to absent himself, otherwise he shall not be permitted to return until the Board of Directors act upon his case.

Is it enforced? During several weeks before the late November election the number of inmates of said institution to be seen on the streets of this city would lead one to believe that the rule was observed more in the breach than in its enforcement.

Again, Section 2 says an inmate who becomes intoxicated upon the premises or while away on leave of absence the Superintendent is authorized and directed to compel him to leave the premises and remain away until he is reinstated by the Board of Directors.

It is a well known fact that Infirmary inmates have paraded the streets of this city during the present month in an intense state of intoxication, and were not only drunk, but were more than chronic by their begging and importuning for money with which to buy more liquor.

The resolutions as adopted may be of recent date, and probably were called forth and enacted on account of the recent misconduct of the charges in care of the Infirmary officials.

However that may be, the resolutions are all right if enforced. Something of the kind is certainly needed in order to restrict some of the inmates and prevent them becoming a nuisance to other people.

FALL COLDS

Prominent Society Woman Advises
Maysville People Best Means to Cure Them.

"To the People of Maysville: Knowing how prevalent hard colds are at this season of the year, and into what danger they often lead, I want to tell you of my experience, as it may be the means of saving your life, as I believe mine was saved by Vinol, the best cod liver oil preparation in the world.

SALLIE VAN WICK.

"On my way home from a reception, thinly clad, I contracted a severe cold and cough. I tried different cod liver oil preparations and other remedies; they only upset my stomach and gave me no relief. I finally sent for my physician. He prescribed for me, but I constantly grew worse, and as a last resort he advised me to try Vinol. I found it was delicious to take and did not upset my stomach like the other cod liver oil preparations. It soon effected a complete cure, built up my general health, and made me feel stronger and better than I have for years.

"My druggist from whom I purchased Vinol tells me that it has taken the place of old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions, because it contains in a highly concentrated form all the medicinal, curative and body-building elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of the system-clogging oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work, and if Vinol does for Maysville people what it did for me it will be worth $100 a bottle to them."—Sallie Van Wick, Vice-President of the Anderson Driving Club, Atlanta, Ga.

Our local druggist, Mr. John C. Pecor, says: "We have never sold a remedy in our store equal to Vinol for chronic coughs, colds and bronchial troubles, or to build up a run down system, and we will return the money in every case where it fails to give satisfaction."
